

GATINEAU VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY
SOCIÉTÉ HISTORIQUE DE LA VALLÉE DE LA GATINEAU

Season's Greetings to all our GVHS members in our 60th year...

Give a gift of local history...

Do you love the local history of the Gatineau Hills, or know a family member or friend who does?

You can get a lovely gift-bagged set of all 48 volumes of Up the Gatineau! and we'll include a complimentary copy of the book Tributes, with selected columns from the Low Down by the late journalist, Ernie Mahoney.

Only $125.00, a saving of $35 over our standard price
add a cumulative Index ~ $ 10.00

Special offer valid until December 9th, 2022

1962
2022
years/ans

Your purchase helps support the Society's mandate to preserve and promote awareness of the history and heritage of the Gatineau Valley.

Give a Gift of GVHS Membership...

Reasonably priced at $25 (one year) or $40 (two year), per family ~ gifting a GVHS membership is the gift that keeps giving!

Here are some of the benefits of GVHS membership ~

- A complimentary copy of the Society's annual journal Up the Gatineau! published each spring.
- The quarterly GVHS newsletter containing Society news, events, and items of interest to the local heritage community.

- Access to the Society's growing collection of local archival records and digital resources.
- Meetings and events with speakers on topics of local and national historical or heritage interest.

Each membership gift will be announced with a gift card and envelope, which the GVHS will send out by Canada Post on your behalf, or which you can personalize with a note and signature before mailing.

Contact finance@gvhs.ca or 819-827-1999 to place your order.

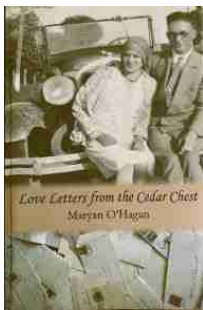

Recipient details, including name, mailing and email addresses, are required.

BOOKS

Love Letters from the Cedar Chest ~ $22.00

by Maryan O'Hagan

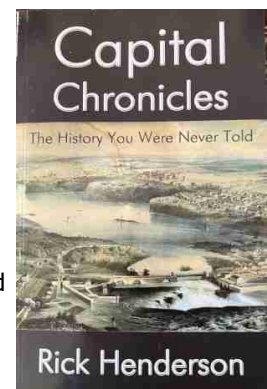

Based on letters written by the author's parents, this book follows the exchanges between Joseph "Joe" McGoey of Martindale, and Sabina Carroll of Farrelton, from the mid-1920s to the mid-1940s.

Both of Irish extraction, their letters give us a glimpse of life in the upper Gatineau Valley, and later of their life in northern Ontario during that period. Both are now buried at St. Camillus Cemetery in Farrelton.

Capital Chronicles (English version) ~ $23.00 Chroniques de la Capitale (version française)

by Rick Henderson

The object of the author's attention is the Curious History of Canada's National Capital Region, and there is much to share. The facts are all there, but they simply form the basis for the more colourful parts of the whole story - the History you Were Never Told.

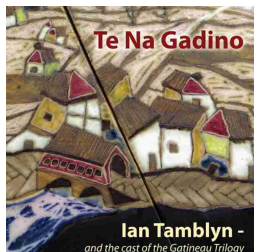

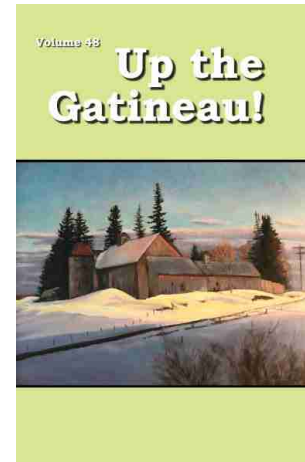

Other Publications Available from GVHS

Up the Gatineau! Volume 48 ~ $15.00

The publication of the latest volume of our local history journal, Up the Gatineau!, is continuing its unbroken 48-year history...

Check out the table of contents for Volume 48 to see what diverse topics the authors have written about. The featured article is by Jim Brown - What We Ate on the Farm.

CD ~ Te Na Gadino ~ Ian Tamblyn ~ now only $10.00

Ian is a recent Officer of the Order of Canada recipient. This CD is a compilation of the songs from Ian Tamblyn's Gatineau Hills historical trilogy of plays, featuring original cast members from Bridge to the Past, A River Runs Through Us, and A Summer - A Fair.

Touring Historic Wakefield ~ $25.00

by Norma Geggie

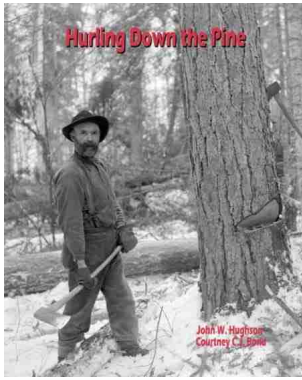

This tour book by local historian Norma Geggie tells the heritage of the community from its original settlement in 1829. With over 100 archival pictures and several unique maps, it offers four walks and will interest residents as well as visitors to the village.

Historical Walks: The Gatineau Park Story (3rd edition) ~ $20.00

by Katharine Fletcher

In Katharine Fletcher's unique, popular guide book to the human and natural history of Gatineau Park, she not only reveals stories of the park, but also several of her favourite hiking trails. Fully illustrated with maps, archival and contemporary photographs, the book is a one-stop reference and handbook to the 363-square kilometre park.

Hurling Down the Pine ~ $25.00

4th edition, by John Hughson and Courtney Bond

The history of the Wright, Gilmour and Hughson Families, timber and lumber manufacturers in the Hull and Ottawa Region and on the Gatineau River - 1800-1920.

Edited by Frances Curry (2014)

The Extra Mile - the Journals of H.J.G. Geggie, M.D.
Medicine in rural Quebec 1885-1965 ~ $20.00

Revised by Norma Geggie, 2007

In Memory of Chelsea's Historic Cemeteries ~ $20.00

by Carol Martin

Chelsea's community development is linked to its well-preserved cemeteries and the people buried in them; includes walking tours, cemetery plans, and extensive index of names on monuments and from burial records. Also contains information on Cantley cemeteries and private burial plots.

Some Personal Recollections and Historic Facts About Kingsmere ~ $3.00

by Arthur Bourinot

A paper delivered at Moorside, Kingsmere, in 1963 to the Historical Society of the Gatineau.

The History of Cantley ~ $10.00

by R. A. J. (Bob) Phillips

Bilingual pamphlet on the history of the municipality of Cantley. 1989.

Train Poster - $10.00

20" x 37" poster commemorating 100 years of service for locomotive 909 ~ Hull-Chelsea-Wakefield steam train

Thanks to John Trent ~ limited number available

Gatineau Valley Railway Stations, poster 11" x 17" ~ $8.00

Featuring photos and a map of 16 railway stations up the Gatineau Valley

Historic Map of (Chelsea) West Hull - 1875 ~ $30.00 (restored 2012 - colour)

Poster 25"x26" - Land ownership as indicated by the 1875 valuation roll including east side of river from Wilson's Corners to Pte. Gatineau, (Cantley) and on the west side to Ironsides, plus Hollow Glen

Unique Note Cards

4"x 6" blank note cards with envelopes

Price: $4.00 each or 3 for $10.00

A reproduction of a painting of Old Chelsea, Quebec by Francis Fitz Roy Dixon, 1898. Thanks to Jon and Lyne Dellandrea for the reproduction rights for this painting.

On the Gatineau is a painting in pastel by Alfred Worsley Holdstock, circa 1850. The landscape is believed to be near the former Paugan Falls (now the Paugan dam) in Low. Thanks again to Jon & Lyne Dellandrea.

To order any of the above contact:

Email: publications@gvhs.ca or phone: 819-827-1548
on-line payment available

or write to: Gatineau Valley Historical Society
P.O. Box 1803, Chelsea, QC J9B 1A1

• Pat Evans Archives •

Chelsea Library - downstairs

Closed December 8, 2022 - January 15, 2023

Monday ~ 10:00 am -12:00 pm
Wednesday ~ 1:00pm – 3:00 pm

Facebook

Website

Monday, February 20, 2022

further details in January 2023